

MAP GUIDE

Directions: Traveling North on Route 17, cross the George P. Coleman Bridge into Gloucester; travel approximately 11.5 miles, turn left on Belroi Road, right on Wiatt Street (road name changes to Woody Road), follow Woody Road to the site.

Come Home to Hutch Creek

With only twenty-four homes being constructed, HUTCH CREEK, located off of Belroi Road, in Gloucester County, offers homeowners the surroundings of tranquility and country living that is known to Gloucester County residents. This convenient location allows homeowners a minute's access to Route 17, Historic Gloucester Court House, shopping centers and local churches. Just moments away are Walter Reeds Birthplace, Historic Jamestown, Colonial Williamsburg and Yorktown Victory Center. Students will attend Botetourt Elementary School, Peasley Middle School, and Gloucester High School.

For Information Call

Kyle Hause

(757) 879-1141

Marketed By:

Long & Foster

The Total Homeownership Experience